Featured will be the sons and daughters and service of Ringwell Lodestar, grand champion Shorthorn bull at the 1954 Chicago International Livestock Show, and which bull we recently sold to the University of Kentucky. There will be 8 of his sons in this sale, 10 of his daughters, 2 cows with calves at foot by him, and 8 cows mated to him. One of the feature attractions will be the two-year-old bull, Sunny Knolls Grand Max, sired by a son of the International grand champion bull, Killearn Max Juggler, and out of a half-sister to the $10,000 International grand champion, Edwin Leader. He has been champion bull at several shows this past season.

The females are a great lot including 27 head out of the noted Ringwell herd from Illinois that we purchased this past September. Included will be 2 imported cows, one a daughter of Calrossie Crocus Count, and one by the Perth champion, Beaufort Bolido. There is a granddaughter of Calrossie Contribution, and one of Beaufort Boxer. One is a daughter of the $7,000 Leveldale Profile, and one is a Wisconsin champion. There will be 16 daughters of the Fort Worth reserve grand champion bull, Clear Creek Royal Leader, and the 15 steer calves are all by him. The 10 commercial cows are all young and have been producing some of our greatest show steers. They represent all of the commercial cattle we now own.

This is the best opportunity in history to buy sons and daughters of the great International grand champion, RINGWELL LODESTAR, and CLEER CREEK ROYAL LEADER, sire of many of our champion steers. Buy the blood of champions where champions are produced.

WELCOME TO OUR SALE . . .

We were pleased last September to have been able to purchase the entire Ringwell Farm Shorthorn herd from Ringwood, Illinois. The addition of this great herd made it possible for us to assemble this offering which contains many of the tops out of the Ringwell herd, along with top productions of our own. We didn't have our fall sale last September as we now hope to make these January sales regular events. We are proud of the cattle we are selling on January 13 and invite your attendance at this sale and hoping also that you will attend the National Western Stock Show and the National Western Shorthorn Sale on Wednesday, January 15.

Beaufort Orange Talisman (right) with her two International supreme champion offspring. The bull is Ringwell Lodestar, the 1954 International champion, while the heifer in the center is Ringwell Orange Talisman, the 1953 International champion. We purchased all three of these with the Ringwell herd of approximately 80 head last September.

MONDAY, JANUARY 13 • DENVER, COLORADO

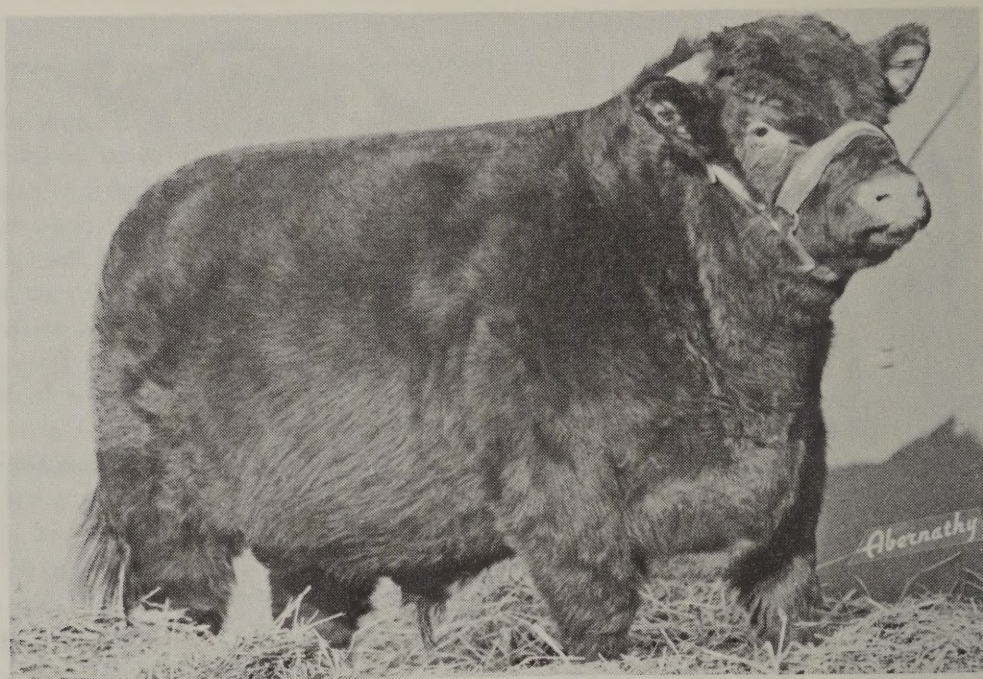

Ringwell Lodestar, 1954 Chicago International grand champion bull. This son of Beaufort Bulldozer is the sire of 8 bulls and 11 females selling in this sale. These Lodestar cattle have thickness, substance, depth and good heads.

Ringwell Lodestar 2d, we purchased this outstanding son of Ringwell Lodestar at private treaty from Ringwell Farms during the 1956 Chicago International Livestock Show. We now, of course, also own his mother which we think is one of the top cows in the breed, and we are selling 15 females mated to him in this sale.

CLEAR CREEK ROYAL LEADER -- we purchased him in the '53 International Congress sale after he had placed first in the senior bull calf class in the open show. He is by the famous Ed. Royal Leader 114th and we think his shortness of leg and full bulging quarter is something we can use in our herd. We showed him at the '54 Fort Worth Stock Show where he was jr. and res. grand champion. There will be 1 bull and 16 females as well as 15 steer calves sired by him in this sale.

MONDAY, JANUARY 13 • DENVER, COLORADO

Ringwell Augusta Ellen, by Ringwell Sir Talisman. First prize junior heifer calf at the 1953 Chicago International, and top selling female at the 1954 Chicago International where she sold for $2,750. At right is Ringwell Orange Talisman, 1954 Chicago International grand champion female and now a member of the Shuman breeding herd.

John Shuman has had a way of getting things done right in the cattle business for several years. When it was announced that the great Ringwell herd in Illinois was to be dispersed this past October, he made a flying trip east and influenced James C. Ewell to sell the herd to him, lock, stock and barrel. Scores of leading breeders had expressed a desire to own many of these Ringwell cattle. It was immensely pleasing to everyone that the herd remain intact in the hands of a top cowman located in one of the most important cattle breeding areas in North America.

The Colomeadow herd has also done right well, and the hand-picked cow herd blended in beautifully with the Ringwell breeding herd. The size and strength of this expanded cow herd will now enable John Shuman to present a strong, annual offering, and the first of these has been scheduled for Monday, January 13, during the Western National Livestock Show in Denver. It provides a wonderful opportunity to attend this sale, along with the National Western Stock Show where a great breeding cattle show will be held on the hill, and a pen bull show will be held in the yards. We think that this can be one of the most important Shorthorn weeks in the year and we hope you can start it off right by being in attendance at this sale on Monday, January 13.
